Truth

This is a subject of ultimate importance, as it is our perceptions which determine our 'reality'. (I discuss this concept of reality further in Parts #11 & #12) Truth and reality are mutually exclusive, that is, neither one is dependant upon the other for it's existence. Reality is subjective, while Truth is Perpetual. Truth Is Ageless and Universal, while reality is ephemeral and transitory. Ones concept of reality does not define Truth, but Truth Defines one's concept of reality. The significance of these axioms is monumental... Consequently, a treatise on this subject can be, at best, problematic, as any attempt to define Truth would require an encompassing knowledge of The Subject. Therefore, only A Being Knowing the totality of existence Is Qualified To Expound upon this subject. Furthermore, the human (mortal) mind is finite, and therefore must resort to The Authority Of A Higher Mind in order to peruse it's scope. Ergo, I have resorted to the only difinitive volume in the knowledge of this dissertation, Namely, The Written Word Of GOD, The Holy Bible.

There is an Authoritative Definition of Truth Given during The Trial that took place when JESUS Of Nazareth Was Being accused of blasphemy, after He Attested To The Fact That He Was GOD In The Flesh. Here is the historical account, as was recorded by His Disciple John...

“What is truth?”, the Roman governor Pontius Pilate asked JESUS.

(John 18:38b)

JESUS Answered: "I Am The Way, The Truth, and The Life. No one comes to The FATHER except through Me." (John 14:6b-e) "I Rebuke and Discipline everyone I Love; so exert yourselves and turn from your sins!

Here, I'm Standing at the door, Knocking. If someone hears My Voice and opens the door, I Will Come In to him and Eat with him, and he will eat with Me. I will let him who wins the victory sit with Me on My Throne, just as I Myself won The Victory and Sat Down with My FATHER on His Throne." (Rev 3:19b-21)

In this Account, JESUS Declares That He Is The Truth, signifying that, Since He Was Commissioned To Create everything that was Created, He Is Authorized To Define the parameters thereof. That is, since He Is The One Who Made everything that Was Made, He Is The Truth. Because Of Him, Truth Exists.

The "Victory" which JESUS Was Referring to in this incident is The Imparted Ability to overcome "sin", and which is Enabled By The Power Of GOD when we are Re-Born. Sin is unholy behavior which separates us from having Communion with GOD. As GOD Is HOLY at all times, He therefore Can Not Have a total Communion (or Oneness) with us if we are not holy. This "Total Oneness" (Which He Desires To Have with us) is the Very Reason that He Created us. GOD's Desire Is For us to Become One With Him! (Jn 17:1-26)

I declare... that is totally Awesome ! ☺

"Thanks be to GOD for His Indescribable Gift!" (2 Cor 9:15)
