

A Love From Above

*And so what do we do with our
Heartaches and pain
Do we toss it aside lost in vain?*

*Do we dismiss it like s a speck of dust?
Or do we turn to our God
A God we have learned to trust?*

*And where do we go with all the
Tears we've cried
The ones out loud and the ones hidden?
Do we turn to our God Above?
To seek and search and to feel His love?*

*Or do we just walk away?
Hearts broken, lives lost and shattered
Never reaching out to the God above
To the one who truly matters?
To the one who can heal
Our hurts and pain
To fill our lives with His love
The only true one, the God above.*

*For ever pain we've cried and every tear unshed
He can take it,
He can fill us with His love
A love from Him,
