

Lean Not on Thine Own Understanding

*Lean not on thine own understanding
Sweet little one;
If you do you'll see only confusion and
Questions
To arise
That can not be answered as you
Struggle with the whys of whom you are
And the situation which has become.*

*Look to God; that is I
My sweet little one
Cast your eyes upon Me now
Allow the troubles of your heavy heart
To
Fall upon me.*

*You can not understand MY ways when you
Choose to carry the burden and bear your Own strength*

*Lean not on thy own understanding
My sweet little one
Look to Me and you'll see
You never walk alone;
For I am your Lord God.*
