

Isaiah
Chapter 28

v. 18-- Our old covenant with Satan is disannulled through Jesus when we bare our souls to Him and be honest with Him. We will pass through the transformation and will be "trodden down"--we are crucified with Christ every day, as we "trod down" our former selves.

v. 19-- Once we accept Jesus, each day we are crucified with Him, victorious through Him, and resurrected as Him. Each day we understand Him more, and become a little more like Him, and a little less like the way we used to be!! It makes each new day unbelievably exciting!!!! (See bottom of this page)

v. 20-- "The bed is shorter...than..a man.." We cannot understand these things ourselves. We must ask God to reveal them to our spirit. In anything, when we try to do it ourselves, we will fall short.

v. 21-- He will chastise each of us--He will correct us when needed and guide us and mold us to use us to accomplish His plan. We can be so eternally glad that He does this, for it shows His great Agape love for us!

v. 22-29-- This group of verses is a beautiful explanation of God's individual love and guidance for each of us. Just as it describes the individual planting methods of each type of seed, so He plants the seeds of His love and knowledge of Him differently in each of us. Also, He plants different seeds in each of us. Some have a talent or spiritual drawing toward one thing, and others to something else, but we share all as the Body of Christ, to give the Body strength. It is as God making a cake. He says--"Some of my people think they should each contribute a piece of the cake. But this is not my way!! I give each one an ingredient, and together you mix to make the cake. If it were otherwise, with a member missing the cake would be complete, though smaller. When you are each an ingredient, the cake is incomplete with one member missing, and each one is incomplete and thus humble without the rest".

John 6:21--"Then they willingly received Him into the ship, and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went." When we willingly receive Jesus, as His disciples did into the boat, into our lives, we are where we are going. We are in heaven spiritually --with all the power of God in us through Jesus and our spirits are immediately changed and perfected--our boat is where it's going!! As for our mind and emotions (souls) they day by day become trained and perfected in the knowledge of Our Lord.
