

v. 11-- God guides us continually. He makes our lives as they should be. He will re-make our minds and souls to become more and more like Him, and the Living Water of Christ nourishes us. He cannot steer us wrong. He is perfect and will guide us to perfection, slowly--day by day.

v. 12-- We Christians are the bridges between the people and Christ, who is their salvation. Through our testimony and our living His Word and putting it into the earth, we help restore the breach made by Adam and Eve and bring many people to the Lord and Salvation.

v. 13-14-- When we follow God's Word in our lives--living only by the Spirit, only speaking what the Spirit leads us to speak, then God will guide us in this life in all our ways and give us the salvation He's promised us!!

Chapter 59

v. 1-- God is still the same as He always was--He never changes, and He is still ready, willing, and able to perform all the wonderful things He did in the days of the Old Testament.

v. 2-- But our distance from Him in our hearts doesn't allow us to hear Him.

v. 3-8-- Without His guidance we will continually fall into sin--we cannot please God of ourselves--and we can know no peace away from Jesus. Without Him we are working for the Devil--"hatching cockatarice eggs, and weaving spiders web--"

v. 9-11-- We can wait for God's light all the time, and not find it--we're groping in the dark and are spiritually dead without Jesus.

v. 12-- Because our sins keep us from Him, we are slaves to sin until we repent and let Him take them away.

v. 13-- By not being totally, heart-deep honest with God, we are lying to Him and turning against Him.

v. 14-- "Truth is fallen in the street"--If we're not true with ourselves and God, we're living a false life.

v. 15-- But those who do turn to the Lord and give Him their lives are considered fools by the rest of the world--The Lord is displeased by this attitude of the people of this world.

v. 16-- God saw in the days of His Prophets of Old, that they were looked at with hatred by the world, as He sees today how His people are called fools. So He Sent The Holy Spirit to be our strength, and Jesus as our salvation and our righteousness. (Psalm 69:8-12)
