

Dedication

I dedicate this book first of all to my Lord and Savior JESUS, The Christ; and to my husband, who has walked this road with me, up and down, good and bad. It is my desire to honor Them both as I give this account of my life. I am not sure how long or short it will be, but I will give you an account of the chapters of my life from the time that I was “Born Again” up to the present... this 15th day of October, in the two thousand and tenth year of our Lord.

I was born in New York, but growing up most of my life in a little town in Southern California, I did not have the chance to have a close relationship with my family in the East... but I Loved them dearly. Being of Italian descent, I grew up as a Catholic, and I was quite content with that. About fifteen years after I was married, life took us in a different direction, Spiritually speaking, that is. As I married a non-Catholic, and he not understanding Latin or The Order of The Mass, my husband would fall asleep during the church service. I remember quite well nudging him to wake him up; and with this I would tell him to find another church that he would stay awake in... but that did not happen until GOD Called him to Be Born-Again. I followed shortly thereafter, and have been on a long and wonderful adventure ever since. In retrospect, I think that I would have missed seeing The Glory Of The Lord had we stayed in that church.

This book is the story of the Miracles that I have seen and that GOD Has done in my Life, and the lessons that I had to learn in order to become who I have become today... and for all Eternity! I would also like to thank Reverend Robert Bart for the encouragement to pick up the pen to write my story. May The Lord Encourage you as you read about The Power that GOD Has Wrought in my Life, and realize that He Will Do Miracle Works in all of your lives as well, if you let Him.

I pray that GOD’s Blessings Will Overtake you, this day... and Forever!

JosieAnna