

Today, Tomorrow, and Forever Page 1

Life goes on, but our mortal bodies will eventually perish. Our Spirit Lives Forever... It Is the part of us that Is Eternal... Given to us by GOD. I personally Believe that It Is A Part Of GOD Himself, A Part Of His SPIRIT that He Gave us as an Eternal Gift. Alleluia!!! I have made it through another year, by The Grace And The Help of The Lord... and as of this week, I am of full retirement age! Even so, my Life never seems to settle down. Maybe it does for some people, but my life seems to always be interrupted by something happening or distracting me from doing GOD'S Work. Each time, though, GOD Helps me to get my Life back on track... one way or another. I think that the hurts, pains, and sorrows of this Life will never cease... at least not until we are in The Glory Cloud with The Lord. I am currently still doing jail ministry and it brings me great Joy. I pray that The Lord keeps me there doing His bidding for a long, long time.

This book is coming to an end soon, and in remembering these parts of my life, I see that it has been a Miraculous journey. I am sure that I have forgotten some things, but if they come to mind later, I will either insert them in the proper pages, or write them into this last chapter. I will continue to write for Love Song Christian Church, and for my Fresh Manna blog for as long as The Lord Instructs me to. I'll continue to give prophetic Words when GOD Gives them to me, and I will always share the Good News Of The Gospel on the streets and to whomever I Am Inspired to. JESUS Is my Life... and I am thankful for all that He Has Done for me, and I sincerely want for others to know Him, too.

My son and two of my darling granddaughters still live in California, and I get to talk to them each week. We try to make a trip twice a year to see them, as they are a Wonderful Gift from GOD. My mother lives on our property with her husband, and so does our other son and his wife and our two other grandchildren. They also are a Wonderful Gift from GOD, and a Continual Blessing to us. We have many friends in the area who are all In Love with The Lord and Walk to The Beat of the same Drum that we do. I have a Loving husband of almost forty-seven years... and that in itself is a Major Blessing. He is retired, and we have a Blessed Life, with GOD As The Center of It.

I am Being Called to a new ministry, also. I am just getting my feet wet now, but I know that GOD Will Use me Greatly in this Ministry. Let me tell you about it. A Mighty man of GOD, a Circuit Riding Preacher, is bringing the Oregon people back to their Christian roots, hoping that, in turn, the rest of the country will follow. He has a Vision from GOD, and I will be there to help in any way that They need me. He preaches on the Indian Reservations, and I hope that one day, I will also share in that wonderful experience with them, as our Christian forefathers also did. His Fire has caused a spark to alight on my heart to go and tell them from whence we came, naturally as well as Spiritually. Glory to GOD! I believe that when GOD Sees us taking a step of Faith, He Prepares another, more challenging and more rewarding one for us. A new day is just around the corner, and GOD Is my Captain.

I continue to minister and counsel the lost and broken-hearted, as I myself once was. GOD Continues to Call me to Dance and Worship, in regarding that matter, I pray that I always have the feet to do it. Without a doubt, I still cook, for a woman can't retire from doing that. I do my best to keep the house clean and in order. Beloveds, Life is never boring around here. If the phone is not ringing, a friend is stopping by. If I am not feeding the animals, I am washing clothes. I am also on the computer a lot, writing a Word for the jail Bible Study or for my weblog... or preparing a document for my 'Israel' or my 'New Believers' web pages. But most of all, I like to just pray and be still before The Throne of GOD. That is where I get my Spirit, my soul, and my energy Renewed.

Taking Mom for a day on the town when she feels good enough to go is still a joy, just Mommy and me. Being an only child, she and I are very close... and we are girlfriends as well. We talk of the things of The Lord and somehow, she always knows if I am happy or sad, or just down about something. I thank GOD that she is still with us. I do not like to think that a day may come where she might not be here... so I just don't! I Love my Mother so much! We lost nonie, and that is bad enough.

I suppose that in recent days I do not have as many supernatural encounters as I once did, but then GOD Wants us to Walk by Faith and not by Sight. After all, I have had enough to last for a Lifetime, and I am still expecting a few more to Come in these Last Days. Prophetic Dreams are still ahead, and a few Miracles that I have Hope for (but will not mention), are also in my prayers... and By GOD'S Mercy, I will see them come to pass. My Hope is in The Lord, Who Has Made Heaven and earth. All Things are Possible with Him! If a mountain has to be moved, He Will Move it. Glory To GOD!
